While the claims of the Murray Hill company were earlier locations than the Havenor claim, the appellate court finds that the trial court did not err in decreeing that the locators of the Murray Hill group had performed the annual assessment work required to hold title. The other point relied upon for a reversal was that the company's grantors, the incorporators, had forfeited the claims to the appellant's because the affidavits of having performed the annual assessment work had not been filed with the county recorder, but this omission, the opinion holds, is not sufficient to disturb the findings of the lower court.

LOVE, COURTSHIP, MARRIAGE.

"O, spring to light, auspicious babe, be born."

This is one of the most essential points in life. Love is the beginning of our life. Before that period life is a mere series of smooth and small events, monotonously agreeable according to our surroundings. Love lights upon us suddenly, like a flame, and lo, we are transformed. We are for the first time alive. We gain a wisdom wiser and sweeter (sometimes) than found in books. Then, again, later on, we suffer unrelented torment. Jealous and aching hearts, undounded with sorrow, seek consolation in friends, follow their advice, and, alas, too late, suffer untold sorrow, rejected, forsaken, love given and not accepted, cast aside forever and another heart, another wrecked life. If in doubt of the one you love, he comes to aid, to assist, to benefit all suffering humanity from whatever cause; from unfaithfulness of husband or misled wife or erring sweetheart. Are you deserted and sad, unloved, lonely and wretched? Is it always thus to be or not to be? Come to one with power and strength to save "the heart-ache and the thousand natural shocks that flesh is heir to"; to drive dull care away; to lighten that leaden heart; to remove that pall of black. We are but spirit clothed in flesh, subjected to crosses, spells and banes, and bad controls through wicked wishes of unsayed souls. He will advise you in the selection of a wife or husband, and how to make a peaceful and prosperous union.

To those who seek advice on money matters, all the words of the professor are most welcome. Many a man who was on the verge of financial ruin has by his timely counsel been enabled to retain his falling fortunes. Others, in doubt at to the wisdom of this or that speculation, have reaped large financial reward by taking his advice. This man can be consulted on all subjects pertaining to the welfare of the human race.

THE HUMBLE OR THE GREAT "O, spring to light, auspicious babe, be born."
